INTRODUCTION

The Valley of the Elephants is an unspoilt wilderness oasis nestled at the northern most point of the Drakensberg Mountains and on the cusp of the Greater Kruger. Aptly named, it falls in the valley of the Great Olifants river that meanders through the Lowveld and Kruger National Park.

It is here that visitors will discover the rich heritage that South Africa has to offer and where you will find Shoswe Lodge, a private game lodge that offers guests an unobstructed view of the glory that the bushveld has to offer. Shoswe Lodge is part of the Soleil Citrus brand.

ABOUT US

The Mashishimale community was a leader in land reform and invited investors to assist them in managing their land in a sustainable manner. Part of the land was made available for agriculture and was developed by Soleil Citrus but the Mashishimale community wanted to attract tourists to share with them the unspoilt wonder that Africa has to offer. Soleil & the community works extremely well together.

Shoswe Lodge was born and in January of 2019 a total renovation was done which now offers a modern yet rustic elegance to visitors.

The Soleil brand signifies hope and growth and that is why only members of the surrounding community is employed. Our employees are the perfect vessels to embody and exude the friendly and unselfish manner in which we treat our guests.

The lodge offers superb accommodation, inspired surroundings and enough activities to make this your perfect safari getaway - whether you are flying solo or part of a group. We cannot wait to spoil you.
